Rokkasho Sightseeing Guide

Six Inspiration Spots

Wow!

BONTEN

a Mt. Bonten

Mt. Bonten, which is 468 meters tall, boasts a commanding view of the Pacific Ocean and Mutsuwan Bay, as well as energy-related facilities such as the government oil stockpile, nuclear fuel cycle facilities, wind and solar power generation facilities. On the mountain road, a beech tree around 400 years old warmly welcomes visitors.

Profound mystery

from ancient times

b Takinoshiri Waterfall
With a drop of about seven meters, this waterfall is located along the coast of the Tomari area, producing refreshing scenery together with the sounds of waves and the waterfall.

c Tatamiwa Rock
Here, you can see oddly-shaped rocks created by wave erosion. It is a short walk from Takinoshiri Waterfall.

d Mategoya
In Mate fishing, nets are set in holes in the water. Mate huts, which used to bustle with fish, is now standing silently.

HAPPY! Events

Festivals with an international flavor

Early June Tanoshimube! Festival

This is an event where both children and adults can enjoy fireworks featuring sound and light, a kids marathon and stage shows.

Early July Rokkasho Health Festa

This event aims to promote health. Besides various events related to health, the Rokkasho Health Exercise Competition is held. Enjoy the event with your family.

Mid-July Tomari Annual Festival

This festival is held to pray for safety on the seas and a bountiful catch for fishermen. The mikoshi (portable shrine) and the dashi (float) parade are also held in the area. On the middle day of the festival period, a port festival and a fireworks event are held.

Early October Fishing Tournament in Rokkasho

Enjoy lure fishing of mid-size yellowtail, adult yellowtail, and young yellowtail, which is called jigging, in the grand Rokkasho offshore of the Pacific Ocean.

The end of October Tokusari New Soba Festival

You can buy zaru soba, tempura soba, and soba mochi as well as enjoy fishing for rainbow trout. The flavorful soba is exquisite.

Early November Rokkasho Industry Festival

You can enjoy various tastes of farm and sea products in Rokkasho such as lake Ogawara beef BBQ. You can also try to catch a salmon by hand.

Mid-February Snowball fight

There are two heated and fun sporting events—a snowball fight and a flag race—on the snow. After getting a lot of exercise, enjoy hot tasty foods.

Summer and winter Rokushun Festival

This event allows visitors to fully enjoy the summer and winter of Rokkasho. Enjoy seasonal foods and events in each season.
